Dear Barry:

I want to congratulate you on the Type Classification of the M1042 and the M1071 Marking Cartridge designs provided by your company. These cartridges were tested by the U.S. Army as part of the Close Combat Mission Capability Kit (CCMCK) program to provide our soldiers with a standardized force on force training capability for close in tactical engagement training. The Type Classification was approved by Brigadier General Brown, Program Executive Officer – Soldier on 17 July 2008.

The M1042 Cartridge will be used with the U.S. Army M16A2/A4 Rifles and the M4 Carbine and the M1071 Cartridge will be used with the U.S. Army M249 Squad Automatic Weapon retrofitted with your weapon conversion bolts.

Sincerely,
